

2 Of Cuban Show In Paris Defect

Miami, Fla., Aug. 30 (AP)—A director and a choreographer of a Cuban musical show performing in Paris defected and flew into Miami today from Paris.

Orlando Lima Aguirre, the director, and Armando Suez were attached to a Fidel Castro cultural mission sponsoring a 120-member vaudeville entitled Music Hall of Cuba.

They complained that more than ten Cuban security agents kept the entertainers under surveillance during the tour.

"You simply cannot perform under policy vigilance on round-the-clock shifts," Lima Aguirre said.

Havana Radio broadcasts have announced that the Cuban variety show opened at the Lyric Theater in Paris August 19 for a three-week engagement.

The radio, heard in Miami, said the show would be presented later in East Germany, Poland, the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia.

Last Friday, Cuba's Ambassador to London, Dr. Luis Ricardo Alonso, quit his post in protest of Castro dictatorship and went into hiding.

Another Government official, Gilberto Alemani, former head of the Cuban trade mission to Japan, announced in Miami Friday that he, too, had quit and was asking for political asylum in the United States.

CPYRGHT

FOIAb5